

CAST Exhibition Curator

Sheffield Flourish is a charity which helps people living with mental health conditions to find the resources and connections they need to build the lives they wish to lead.

We run a website hub, events, support community enterprises across Sheffield, and offer opportunities to develop your skills and make new connections.

One of the community enterprises we support is Creative Arts Support Team, or CAST, a wonderfully busy group who run art sessions, creative writing groups, an open mic night and an annual exhibition.

CAST EXHIBITION CURATOR OPPORTUNITY

CAST's exhibition is an annual event where talented artists from across the city who have experienced mental health issues put their work on show. This year they're looking for someone to help plan and run the week-long exhibition.

We're looking for someone with creative flair and experience to curate and manage the show, as well as help plan and coordinate in the weeks and months leading up.

We're looking for a good communicator with an eye for detail and a passion for art. The ideal candidate also needs to have excellent organisational skills, to make sure the event goes smoothly. The ideal candidate will also make everyone feel like their work is valued by being kind, patient and supportive.

The role involves:

- Curating the show so there is a clear idea of how it will look
- Working with a budget to make key decisions about the week's events including private view, speakers, and engagement activities
- Communicating with artists about their work and organising delivery and pick up of artworks
- Coordinating volunteers to 'supervise' during the exhibition
